
NON-DEGREE
APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

GENERAL ADMISSIONS INFORMATION

Non-degree students are generally allowed to take up to 12 Adelphi University credits. To register for courses as a non-degree student, you must complete and return the attached application, along with the nonrefundable application fee of $50, made payable to Adelphi University. Feel free to contact the Office of University Admissions at 516.877.3050 with any questions. International students must complete an international student application.

NON-DEGREE VISITING STUDENT

If you are a non-degree visiting student and want to take courses at Adelphi University with the intention of having them transferred back to the degree-granting institution, you must submit a recommendation letter from the degree-granting institution that includes the courses and credit hours the student can take at Adelphi University. The statement must also include a description of the courses and how these courses will transfer back to the degree-granting institution.

NON-DEGREE GRADUATE STUDENT

If you are a non-degree graduate student and want to take graduate courses at Adelphi University, you must submit a transcript showing proof of a baccalaureate degree. Departmental approval is required for graduate level courses.

NON-DEGREE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT

If you are a non-degree undergraduate student and want to take undergraduate prerequisite courses, you must submit a transcript showing proof of a baccalaureate degree. Certain undergraduate courses may require departmental approval.

NON-DEGREE STUDENT

If you are seeking admission as a non-degree student, your statement of intent will be evaluated by the Office of University Admissions on a case-by-case basis. You must submit the following:

- Proof of high school diploma demonstrating graduation at least one year before applying as a non-degree student

OR

- A transcript showing proof of a baccalaureate degree

TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

All non-degree applications and required documents should be sent directly to the Office of University Admissions.
